Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 30, 2018, Systemax Inc. (the “Company”) executed a definitive agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) to sell its France based IT value added reseller business (the “France Business”) to Bechtel AG (“Bechtel”) for an enterprise value of $246 million at current exchange rates

The agreement to sell the France Business is denominated on a cash-free, debt-free basis, and will include normalized working capital adjustments. The sale is subject to customary regulatory approvals and is expected to close later in 2018. On a Pro Forma basis, assuming it had closed on June 30, 2018 and using current exchange rates of 1.17 Euro to USD, the enterprise value would have been $246 million and its equity value, inclusive of net cash on hand and other adjustments, would have been approximately $270 million. The Company anticipates recognizing a pretax book gain of between $182 and $188 million on the sale, and after funding transaction expenses, the total cash available to U.S. shareholders on a tax-effected basis resulting from this transaction would have been between $238 and $245 million.

The parties to the Purchase Agreement made customary representations, warranties and covenants, and agreed to indemnification obligations appropriate for the nature of the transaction. The Purchase Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants made to, and solely for the benefit of, the parties thereto. The statements embodied in the representations and warranties are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to investors, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Investors are not third party beneficiaries under the Purchase Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, the France Business or Bechtel.

The foregoing description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is filed as an exhibit to this Form 8-K, and incorporated herein by reference.

Upon completion of the sale, the Company's operations will be its Industrial Products Group business in North America, which is focused on industrial supplies and MRO (maintenance, repair, and operations), markets the Company has served since 1949.

Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities

The Company expects to incur exit costs of approximately $1.2 million related to the acceleration of the vesting of certain employee restricted stock awards upon closing of the sale of the France Business.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On July 31, 2018, the Company issued a press release announcing the sale of the France Business. A copy of this press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

11. INDEMNIFICATION BY THE SELLER

11.1 INDEMNIFICATION

- (a) Subject to the provisions contained herein (and including specifically Clause 11.10(a)), from and after the Closing Date, the Seller hereby agrees to indemnify the Buyer (or, at the Buyer's election, the Group Companies) from and against any Loss resulting from any inaccuracy of any representation or warranty made by such Seller under Clause 10 and from any breach by the Seller of any of its covenants contained in the Agreement (together with a Tax Indemnification, an "Indemnification").

- (b) The Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless the Buyer, any Affiliate of the Buyer and/or the Group Companies for any Loss (with respect to (ii) below including any Tax) by way of specific indemnity resulting from (i) any Tax assessment carried out by the Governmental Authorities having a cause or origin in an event which occurred prior to the Closing Date and/or (ii) the Systemax Agreements (collectively, the "Tax Indemnification"). For the purpose of calculation of a Tax Indemnification, the "Loss" shall include any increase in the profit sharing participation resulting from such Tax assessment.

The Tax Indemnification (i) shall not be subject to the limitations set forth in Clause 11.4(a) and (b), and (ii) shall not be limited or excluded by the Disclosed Information (and for the avoidance of doubt, including the Seller's Due Diligence Report). The Seller's liability under the Tax Indemnification shall in any event be limited to the aggregate amount of the Purchase Price.

In the event that the Group Companies receive a payment notice from the Governmental Authorities, the Seller shall pay the Tax Indemnification within ten (10) Business Days as from the date of receipt of (i) the payment notice from the Governmental Authorities, if such notice is not subject to any objections by the Group Companies or (ii) on the date of an enforceable decision against the Group Companies if such notice has been disputed by the Group Companies.

The Buyer undertakes to dispute the payment notice from the Governmental Authorities and to defend the tax position taken by the Group Companies in good faith and in accordance with Clause 11.6.

- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties expressly acknowledge and agree that for the purpose of calculating an Indemnification, there will be no double counting of any items which have been taken into account in the determination of the Purchase Price in accordance with Clause 3.1, but not in the Enterprise Value. In particular, the Parties expressly acknowledge and agree that, for the purpose of calculating a Tax Indemnification, there will be no double counting of the estimated 2018 income Tax prepayments made by the Seller prior to the Closing Date.

11.2 CALCULATION OF AN INDEMNIFICATION

- (a) In calculating the amount of an Indemnification relating to a Loss, the following amounts shall be deducted:
- (i) any Tax saving or benefit relating to such Loss actually available to the Buyer or any Group Company (including any Tax reduction, credit or loss carry-back or carry-forward);
 - (ii) any valid Tax reimbursement received by any Group Company after the Closing Date, insofar as said Taxes had been paid by the Group Company prior to the Closing Date, except where such valid Tax reimbursement has been already accounted for by the Group Companies prior to the Closing Date;
 - (iii) the Buyer or any Group Company have received or have a respective valid, fully enforceable and collectible claim for repayment, reimbursement or indemnification against a Third Party in relation to such Loss, including under any insurance policy of any of the Group Companies in force until the Closing Date;
 - (iv) any other monetary gain or monetary benefit (including the reduction or discharge of any liability) accruing to the Buyer or any Group Company from the matter giving rise to such Loss;
 - (v) if and to the extent taken into account when calculating the Purchase Price (but, for the avoidance of doubt, not in the calculation of the Enterprise Value), any saving accruing to any Group Company and arising from any specific provision or specific reserve that had originally been recorded in the Annual Accounts of any of the Group Companies and that has proven to be excessive or unnecessary after the Closing Date or arising from the settlement of a liability for an amount lower than its book value as set forth in the relevant Annual Accounts or the sale of an asset for an amount higher than its book value as set forth in the relevant Annual Accounts.
- (b) The Buyer hereby undertakes to promptly inform, and to cause the Group Companies to promptly inform, the Seller of the occurrence of any element which may be taken into consideration for purposes of Clause 11.2(a). The Seller shall only pay an Indemnification to the Buyer for the net amount of any Loss calculated after deduction of the items referred to in Clause 11.2(a).

- (c) For the sake of clarity, in calculating the amount of an Indemnification, there shall not be taken into consideration any price/earnings ratio or any other similar multiplier or valuation factor which would be, or would have been implicit, in the negotiation of the setting of the Purchase Price.
- (d) If, at the election of the Buyer, any Indemnification is made to any Group Company and such Indemnification is subject to Tax, then the Seller shall pay to the relevant Group Company an additional amount that will ensure that after having taken into account such Tax, the relevant Group Company shall be left with a sum equal to the amount that the relevant Group Company would otherwise have received if such payment had not been subject to Tax.

11.3 EXCLUSIONS

- (a) The Seller shall have no obligation to pay an Indemnification under the Agreement in respect of any Loss which shall occur or be increased as a result of:
 - (i) any action of any member of the Seller's Group or any of the Group Companies made pursuant to the Agreement, or otherwise, at the request in writing or with the approval in writing of the Buyer;
 - (ii) any action or omission (if and to the extent the Buyer or any Affiliate of the Buyer has a duty to act in relation to such omission) of the Buyer or any Affiliate of the Buyer (including the Group Companies), that has occurred after the Closing Date;
 - (iii) the entry into force of, or any change in, after the Closing Date, any Law, or any practice of any Governmental Authority, even if such entry into force or change has a retroactive effect;
 - (iv) a Tax reassessment the only effect of which would be to shift the income or expense of one financial year to another, or a value added tax charge for the Group Companies, except for the amount of any penalty, late payment interest or fine resulting from the reassessment;
 - (v) a change in the valuation of fixed assets in the Annual Accounts of any Group Companies, except if such change results from the non-existence of such fixed assets;
 - (vi) any change in the valuation rules or accounting or Tax policies or practices of any of the Group Companies after the Closing Date.
- (b) For the avoidance of doubt, it is specified that no Claim shall be served upon the Seller more than once on account of the breach of any of the representations, warranties or covenants of the Seller hereunder including if a Loss results from a breach or inaccuracy of more than one of the representations, warranties or covenants of the Seller hereunder.

11.4 LIMITATIONS

- (a) The Buyer shall be entitled to receive an Indemnification from the Seller from and against any Loss resulting from any inaccuracy of any representation or warranty made by such Seller under Clause 10, only to the extent that the amount for which the Seller may be held liable under the Agreement, after application of the provisions of this Clause 11, exceeds:
 - (i) in respect of any single Claim, an individual amount of fifty thousand (50,000) Euros, it being specified that a series of Losses arising from common origins shall be aggregated and treated as a single Loss;
 - (ii) in the aggregate, in respect of all Claims for which the Buyer is entitled to receive an Indemnification under Clause 11 and the paragraph above, a cumulative threshold of an amount greater than seven hundred fifty thousand (750,000) Euros (such amount being construed as a threshold, the Seller being only liable to indemnify the Buyer when such threshold is reached and then not only for the amount of the Indemnification which is in excess of such threshold, but from the first Euro).

The limitations of this Clause 11.4(a) shall not apply to Buyer's Claims for (i) breaches of the Fundamental Representations, (ii) breaches of Seller's representations and warranties contained in Clauses 10.9 and 10.14, (iii) Claims for specific performance of primary obligations under the Agreement, (iv) Claims for breaches of Pre-Closing Covenants set forth in Clause 5.1 (Management up to the Closing Date), (v) claims under Clause 11.1(b) (Tax Indemnification), and (vi) Claims arising as a result of wilful misconduct or fraud (the claims referred to in this paragraph of Clause 11.4(a) collectively the "Exempted Claims").

- (b) Except for Exempted Claims, the amount of Indemnification for which the Seller may be liable under the Agreement shall be limited to 30% of the Purchase Price (the "Cap"). The Seller's aggregate liability under the Agreement, including under Exempted Claims (except for claims arising as a result of wilful misconduct or fraud), shall in any event be limited to an aggregate maximum amount of 100% of the Purchase Price.

- (c) The payment of an Indemnification provided for in this Clause 11 shall be the exclusive remedy of the Buyer in respect of any inaccuracy or breach of representation, warranty or covenant of the Seller herein and more generally in respect of any claim relating to the Sale, save the case of fraud or wilful misconduct (dol). To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Buyer hereby irrevocably waives the benefit of any warranties generally available to purchasers under applicable Law, including under articles 1641 and 1643 of the French Civil Code.

11.5 CLAIM NOTICES

- (a) In the event that the Buyer estimates in good faith that it has a claim to receive an Indemnification from the Seller under this Clause 11 (a "Claim"), then the Buyer shall send to the Seller a written notice (a "Claim Notice") which shall specify:
 - (i) which of the Buyer or any of the Group Companies has paid or suffered, the Loss in respect of which the Claim is brought;
 - (ii) the good faith estimated amount of the Loss and of the Indemnification claimed if and to the extent reasonably possible at the time of specifying the good faith estimate;
 - (iii) the nature of the misrepresentation or breach of warranty or covenant resulting in such Loss;
 - (iv) and, if and to the extent available to the Buyer, such other available supporting evidence as may reasonably be required to assess the merits of the Claim and the computation of the Indemnification or estimate of such Loss.
- (b) For the avoidance of doubt, the Buyer acknowledges and agrees that it shall send to the Seller a Claim Notice in the event of any Claim including those resulting from a Loss which does not exceed the individual and global thresholds set forth in Clause 11.4(a)(i) and (ii).
- (c) The Claim Notice shall be sent by the Buyer to the Seller:
 - (i) if the Claim arises in connection with any claims, verifications or judicial or administrative proceedings by any Third Party (a "Third Party Claim"), within twenty (20) Business Days of receipt by the Buyer or the relevant Group Company of actual notice of such Third Party Claim or, if required by the circumstances (e.g.; in the case of emergency proceedings or when a response to notification must be given within a time period in order to avoid a forfeiture of rights), within an adequate shorter period to enable the Seller to answer in a timely fashion and exercise its rights hereunder;
 - (ii) for any other Claims, no later than twenty (20) Business Days after the Buyer or the relevant Group Company first becomes aware of all relevant facts upon which the Claim against the Seller is based.
- (d) Failure by the Buyer to comply with the provisions of Clause 11.5(a) or Clause 11.5(c) will not release the Seller from its obligations hereunder except that any payment made hereunder shall be reduced by the amount of Loss resulting from such failure.
- (e) Any Claim shall be deemed rejected by the Seller unless it notifies the Buyer in writing of its acceptance of such Claim within twenty (20) Business Days as from receipt of the Claim Notice.
- (f) If the Seller rejects a Claim, either expressly or tacitly in accordance with Clause 11.5(e), then the Seller and the Buyer shall attempt in good faith to reach an agreement with respect to the validity of such Claim and the amount of the corresponding Indemnification. If no such agreement can be reached after good faith negotiations within a period of thirty (30) Business Days following the expiration of the twenty (20) Business Days-period referred to in Clause 11.5(e), then the dispute shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of Clause 20.

11.6 CLAIMS INVOLVING THIRD PARTIES

- (a) With respect to any Third Party Claim, the Seller may decide:

(i)subject to Seller's acknowledgement set forth in paragraph (b) below, to have exclusive conduct of such Third Party Claim, in which case the Seller shall adequately take into account the legitimate business interests of the Buyer and the Group Companies, acting reasonably, and the Buyer shall take (and shall cause the relevant Group Company to take) such actions as the Seller shall consider reasonably necessary or appropriate under the circumstances to defend such Third Party Claim, ensuring that the Buyer or the relevant Group Company shall, if and to the extent legally permissible:

- (A) grant to the Seller all necessary powers to represent the Buyer or the relevant Group Company in connection with such Third Party Claim;
- (B) furnish to the Seller all necessary information and documentation concerning the Buyer or the relevant Group Company and such Third Party Claim;
- (C) follow any reasonable instructions of the Seller issued in connection with the defence of such Third Party Claim; and
- (D) refrain from taking any action likely to jeopardize or interfere with the defence of such Third Party Claim, or

(ii)that the Buyer shall have the conduct of the Third Party Claim, in which case:

- (A) the Seller shall be entitled to participate, with the assistance of any counsel of its choice, the costs and expenses of such counsel to be paid by the Seller, in the negotiations and the defence of the Buyer or of the relevant Group Company's interests,
- (B) any reasonable recommendation made by the Seller in the course of the proceedings shall be duly considered and taken into account by the Buyer;
- (C) the Buyer can only be entitled to indemnification following receipt by the Seller of a notice evidencing that the amount of the Third Party Claim is being due and payable (x) as a result of an immediately enforceable decision or a final judgment not subject to appeal or (y) as a result of the execution of a settlement agreement provided that the Buyer has obtained the prior consent of the Seller (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

- (b) The conduct of the defence of a Third Party Claim by the Seller, but not its participation to the defence of a Third Party Claim, shall be deemed to constitute an admission by the Seller of its liability to pay an Indemnification to the Buyer in respect of any Loss resulting from such Third Party Claim, as the case may be.
- (c) The Seller shall not be entitled to take over the conduct of any Third Party Claim that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Group.
- (d) If the Buyer has not received a notification from the Seller indicating its intention to conduct or to participate to the defence of the Third Party Claim within twenty (20) Business Days of the receipt by the Seller of the corresponding Claim Notice, the Seller shall be deemed to have waived its right to conduct and to participate to the defence of such Third Party Claim.
- (e) In any event, the Seller shall have the right to conclude any solely monetary settlement or make any monetary voluntary payment with respect to any Third Party Claim without the prior consent of the Buyer, provided that such settlement does not impose any payment obligations of a Group Company, the Buyer or an Affiliate of the Buyer unless such payment obligation is fully and unconditionally remedied by the Seller, any materially adverse condition, restriction or limitation on the operations of Buyer or any of the Group Companies.
- (f) Should the Buyer or any relevant Group Company not allow the Seller to participate to the defence against a Third Party Claim or otherwise violate any of the provisions of this Clause 11.6, the Buyer shall not be entitled to indemnification by the Seller in respect of any Loss resulting from such Third Party Claim if the Seller is prejudiced thereby.
- (g) The costs and expenses incurred by the Buyer and the Group Companies in defending such Third Party Claim constitute a Loss of the Buyer which shall be compensated by the Seller under the Agreement if and to the extent the Third Party Claim relates to a breach of any of the representations and warranties or covenants under the Agreement. The costs and expenses incurred by the Seller in connection with any defence against a Third Party Claim shall be borne by the Seller to the extent that the Third Party Claim relates to a breach of any of the representations and warranties or covenants under the Agreement and by the Buyer to the extent that no breach of any of the representations and warranties or covenants under the Agreement was involved.

11.7 DUTY TO MITIGATE

- (a) The Buyer shall, and shall cause the Group Companies to take all necessary steps to avoid or mitigate any Loss, including prosecuting diligently and in good faith any claim that it or any of the Group Companies may have to receive indemnification or any other recovery (including insurance proceeds) from any Third Party. The Buyer shall keep the Seller regularly informed of all such efforts.
- (b) Whenever the Buyer is entitled to recover any amounts which could be or has been the subject of a Claim hereunder, the Buyer shall diligently take, or cause the relevant Group Company to take all actions required, to be taken by the Buyer or the relevant Group Company to enforce its rights to recovery against the relevant Third Party and thereby adequately take into account the legitimate business interests of the Buyer and the Group Companies, acting reasonably. The Buyer shall promptly inform the Seller as to the steps taken in relation thereto.

11.8 COOPERATION

- (a) In connection with any Third Party Claim, the Buyer shall, and shall cause the Group Companies to:
 - (i) allow the Seller and its advisors to investigate the actions, facts or events alleged to give rise to a Third Party Claim and whether and to what extent any amount is payable in respect thereof;
 - (ii) give to the Seller and its advisors, reasonable access (including the right to take copies and staff assistance) during normal business hours, to all such Records as the Seller and its advisors may reasonably request with respect to a Third Party Claim, it being specified that the Seller hereby agrees to keep all such information confidential and to use it only for the purpose of investigating and defending the Claim in question.
- (b) From and after the delivery of a Claim Notice, in the event that any corresponding Loss is susceptible to remedy, the Buyer shall allow and shall cause the Group Companies to allow the Seller an opportunity to implement such remedy within a reasonable period the duration of which shall be set by the Buyer and the Seller acting in good faith.

11.9 PAYMENT

Any Indemnification due under this Clause 11 shall be paid by the Seller to the Buyer within fifteen (15) Business Days as from the date of receipt by the Buyer of the written acceptance of the Claim by the Seller accordance with Clause 11.5(e), or in the event of a disagreement between the Parties, on the date of an enforceable decision rendered in accordance with Clause 20 in respect of such disagreement between the Parties.

- (c) Any Updated Disclosed Information shall not impact any rights that the Buyer may otherwise have to make a Claim or benefit from any indemnification in respect of such matters contained in the Updated Disclosed Information, it being specified for the avoidance of doubt, that Clause 11 shall apply mutatis mutandis to such Claim, in particular with respect to the exclusions and limitations set forth in Clauses 11.3 and 11.4, and it being further specified for the avoidance of doubt, that any Updated Disclosed Information shall solely have the purpose to avoid that the Seller gives an inaccurate representation or warranty as of the Closing Date and the Buyer shall have the right to be indemnified by the Seller pursuant and subject to the provisions of the Agreement with respect to such Updated Disclosed Information.

- (d) In any event, the Updated Disclosure Information shall have no impact on the consummation of the Sale and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, that shall remain valid and enforceable, if the Conditions Precedent and the Closing Actions are satisfied except in case of fraud.

11.11 SURVIVAL OF REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND INDEMNIFICATION

- (a) All representations and warranties and indemnification obligations of the Seller shall survive the Closing and shall continue to be in full force and effect:
 - (i) unless otherwise specified in (ii) and (iii) below, with regard to Claims for a breach of Seller's representations and warranties, after the expiry of a period of eighteen (18) months from the Closing Date;
 - (ii) with regard to Claims for a breach of Seller's representations and warranties contained in the Fundamental Representations, after the expiry of five (5) years from the Closing Date;

- (b) The expiration of any such representation and warranty or indemnification obligations, however, shall not affect any Claim if a Claim Notice thereof has been given to the Seller in accordance with the provisions of Clause 11.5 prior to such termination. However any such Claim shall terminate and be null and void unless the Buyer has commenced the proceedings set forth in Clause 20(b) with respect to such Claim within six (6) months following the end of the respective period mentioned in Clause 11.11(a).

12. EMPLOYMENT LAW DISPUTES

- (a) The Subsidiary is a defendant under various employment law related disputes as further detailed in Schedule 12(a) (collectively, "Employment Disputes").
- (b) The Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless the Buyer and the relevant Group Company in an amount equal to 50% of the aggregate amount due from the Buyer and/or the relevant Group Company in respect of any and all claims, damages, payment obligations and other detriments (including costs and expenses of external advisors to be paid by a Group Company as well as costs and expenses of any court or other Governmental Authority if and to the extent to be paid by a Group Company) in connection with the Employment Disputes but only with respect to the portion of the total amount so due from Buyer and/or Group Companies which is in excess of the provisions which have been made by a Group Company in the Annual Accounts for the Employment Disputes as set forth in Schedule 12(b). The Buyer may demand from the Seller that the amount which is subject to the indemnity in this Clause 12(b) is paid directly to the respective Group Company.
- (c) The Parties agree that the indemnification obligations of the Seller pursuant to this Clause 12 shall not be subject to the limitations in Clause 11.4 except for the Cap which shall apply mutatis mutandis in accordance with Clause 11.4(b).

- (b) The Buyer shall take all necessary steps to fulfil any and all formalities relating thereto on a timely-basis, in order to ensure that the liability of the Seller may not be sought with respect to any amount due under Clause 18(a). 19. MISCELLANEOUS

19.1 FORMER DIRECTORS OF THE GROUP COMPANIES

- (a) In the event of claim by either the Buyer or any of the Group Companies against any of the Persons set forth in Clause 6.2(d)(v) for any of the reasons set forth in Clause 6.2(d)(v), the Buyer shall indemnify and hold any such Persons set forth in Clause 6.2(d)(v) harmless against the consequences of any such claim or liability subject to the limitations set forth in Clause 6.2(d)(v).
- (b) The Buyer shall also procure that the publication formalities relating to the resignations of the mandataire social, director or officer of the Group Companies having occurred on the Closing Date be carried out as soon as possible after the Closing Date.

19.2 CALCULATION OF TIME PERIODS

- (a) The provisions of Articles 640 to 642 of the French Code of Civil Procedure shall be applied to calculate any period of time under the Agreement, provided that the references in article 642 to "un jour férié ou chômé" and "premier jour ouvrable" shall be interpreted by reference to the definition of "Business Day" appearing herein.
- (b) Time shall be of the essence as regards the performance by each Party of all of its obligations under the Agreement.

19.3 AMENDMENT - WAIVER

- (a) No terms of the Agreement may be altered, modified, amended or supplemented or terminated except by an instrument in writing duly signed by all Parties.
- (b) A waiver of any term, provision or condition of, or consent granted under the Agreement shall be effective only if given in writing and signed by the waiving or consenting Party, and then only in the instance and for the purpose for which it is given.
- (c) No failure or delay on the part of any Party in exercising any right under the Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right except as specifically set forth herein.
- (d) No breach by any Party of any provision of the Agreement shall be waived or discharged except with the express written consent of the other Parties.

19.4 INVALIDITY – ENTIRE AGREEMENT

- (a) If any term or provision herein is held to be void, unenforceable, invalid, illegal or inapplicable, the legality, enforceability, validity and applicability of the other provisions of the Agreement shall not be affected or impaired thereby. In such case the Parties shall negotiate in good faith a lawful substitute provision to replace the void, unenforceable, invalid, illegal or inapplicable provision or term that shall be consistent with the intent and object of the original provision.
- (b) The Agreement (including the Schedules hereto and the documents referred to herein (including for the avoidance of doubt the Confidentiality Agreement)) constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties and supersedes all prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the Parties, written or oral, to the extent they have related in any way to the subject matter hereof.

19.5 ABSENCE OF RENEGOTIATION

The Parties and the Guarantors expressly agree all risks arising from, or originating from, or related to the performance of this Agreement including notably the fact that the performance of the Agreement may be excessively onerous for them in the event of a change of unforeseeable circumstances as of the Signing Date. Therefore, the Parties and the Guarantors hereby undertake, each as far as it is concerned (and, when appropriate, ensure compliance with this obligation, each as far as it is concerned, by their respective Affiliates), not to exercise their right to ask the renegotiation of the Agreement (including by way of legal proceedings) pursuant to the provisions of Article 1195 of the French Civil Code.

19.6 SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE

The Parties and the Guarantors acknowledge and agree that, in accordance with articles 1217 and 1221 of the French Civil Code, in case of breach by a Party of any of its obligations herein, the non-defaulting Party may seek specific performance (exécution forcée), without prejudice to the right to claim for damages. In addition, as an exception to the provisions of article 1221 of the French Civil Code, each Party and each Guarantor acknowledges that the non-defaulting party is entitled to seek for the specific performance of the Agreement, even if it would result in a manifest disproportion (disproportion manifeste) between its cost for the debtor of the concerned obligation and the benefit for the complaining party.

20. GOVERNING LAW - DISPUTES

- (a) The Agreement and any contractual or non-contractual obligation arising out of or in connection with the Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, French law.
- (b) All disputes arising out of or in connection with the Agreement (including without limitation with respect to the existence, validity, performance, termination and interpretation of the Agreement and any non-contractual obligation arising out of or in connection with the Agreement) shall be finally settled under the rules of arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators appointed in accordance with the ICC Rules provided that the third arbitrator who acts as chairman of the arbitral tribunal shall be nominated by the two co-arbitrators, upon consultation of the Parties, for confirmation by the ICC Court, within 30 days from the confirmation or appointment of the co-arbitrators. Larry Reinhold, Chief Executive Officer, said, “We delivered another quarter of strong financial performance as our Industrial and France businesses posted double digit revenue increases and strong cash flow generation. Industrial revenue improved 14% on a constant currency average daily sales basis as we benefited from robust demand across our broad customer end markets, product offerings and sales channels. Operating leverage remained strong as our product, gross and operating margins were in-line with our internal expectations and showed improvement on a sequential quarter basis. France produced revenue growth of 11% on a constant currency average daily sales basis. Its top line results once again outpaced the French IT market and operating margins remain among the best in the industry, resulting in a 28% increase in operating income.”

“The definitive agreement we executed with Bechtle AG for the sale of our France IT business recognizes the substantial value we have built in France and we believe Bechtle will be a good home for our French business, our employees and our customers. Upon closing of the transaction, we will be solely focused on the growth of Industrial where we are making further investments to enhance its competitive position, expand the value we bring to our customers and position it for further success. Industrial is a terrific business that has significantly expanded its operations, improved its profitability and has multiple growth opportunities. With a strong balance sheet and with the additional liquid capital that the business will have after the completion of the sale of our French Business, we have significant financial flexibility to evaluate strategic acquisitions for Industrial and to return capital to shareholders through dividends and share repurchases.”

The agreement to sell our France Business is denominated on a cash-free, debt-free basis, and will include normalized working capital adjustments. The sale is subject to customary regulatory approvals and is expected to close later in 2018. On a Pro Forma basis, assuming it had closed on June 30, 2018 and using current exchange rates of 1.17 Euro to USD, the enterprise value would have been $246.0 million and its equity value, inclusive of net cash on hand and other adjustments, would have been approximately $270.0 million. We anticipate recognizing a pretax book gain of between $182 and $188 million on the sale, and after funding transaction expenses, the total cash available to U.S. shareholders on a tax-effected basis resulting from this transaction would have been between $238 and $245 million. Systemax estimates that its normalized income tax rate, after closing of the transaction, to be approximately 26%, compared to an effective tax rate of approximately 30% in the first half of 2018.

At June 30, 2018, the Company had total working capital of $163.2 million, cash and cash equivalents of $96.9 million and excess availability under its credit facility of approximately $71.0 million. The Company has significant flexibility to return capital to shareholders, execute on its business plans, invest in strategic M&A, and continue investing in growth opportunities. The Company’s board of directors has declared a cash dividend of $0.11 per share to common stock shareholders of record at the close of business on August 13, 2018, payable on August 20, 2018. The Company anticipates continuing a regular quarterly dividend in the future.

The Company also announced today that its Board of Directors has approved a share repurchase program with a repurchase authorization of up to two million shares of the Company's common stock. Under the share repurchase program, the Company is authorized to purchase shares from time to time through open market purchases, tender offerings or negotiated purchases, subject to market conditions and other factors. The share repurchase program does not obligate the Company to repurchase any specific number of shares and may be suspended or terminated at any time.

 Systemax manages its business and reports using a 52-53 week fiscal year that ends at midnight on the Saturday closest to December 31. For clarity of presentation, fiscal years and quarters are described as if they ended on the last day of the respective calendar month. The actual fiscal quarters ended on June 30, 2018 and July 1, 2017. The second quarter of both 2018 and 2017 included 13 weeks and the first six months of both 2018 and 2017 included 26 weeks.*

 On December 1, 2015 the Company closed on the sale of certain assets of its North American Technology Group (“NATG”). Pursuant to this transaction, the Company continues to wind down the remaining operations of NATG during 2018. Costs of the wind down in 2018 are included in discontinued operations. Costs of the wind down in the second quarter of 2017 are included in continuing operations and year to date costs are included in continuing and discontinued operations. On March 24, 2017, the Company closed on the sale of its European Technology Group businesses, other than its operations in France. Prior and current year results of these divested businesses, along with the associated loss on the sale recorded in 2017, have been classified as discontinued operations.*

* During the second quarter of 2017, the Company decided to amend its presentation of certain costs associated with operating our Distribution Centers as well as costs associated with our Purchasing and Product Development Teams. Historically these costs have been included as a component of costs of goods sold. We are now including those costs as a component of Selling, Distribution, and Administrative Expenses. This change is reflected in current and prior year periods and is not a restatement of any amounts, rather, an amendment to the presentation of these costs to better align with the Company’s MRO-oriented peer group in North America.*
